part of the bill is limited at baby rattling.

The Forepaugh Circus Parade.

A prominent feature of the Forepaugh circus parade this morning will be the elephant pugilist, "Sullivan," and his trainer and antagonist, "Eph" Thompson, the colored athlete. "Sullivan" will wear for the first time the champion elephantine middle-weight belt of the United States, which has just been presented to him by his admirers among the attaches of the circus. The boxing glove he wears on the end of his trunk was expressly manufactured for him and weighs as much as an ordinary pair. Twenty-five other elephants will appear in the parade.

The Women's Foreign Missionary Society.